So last year 37,000 Americans died from the common Flu. It averages between 27,000 and 70,000 per year. Nothing is shut down, life & the economy go on. At this moment there are 546 confirmed cases of CoronaVirus, with 22 deaths. Think about that!

This is your daily reminder that New York City released an illegal alien charged with the rape of a 13 year old girl

Their Sanctuary City policy kept him from being turned over to ICE

This is exactly what Trump was elected to fix

I am doing all that I can to stay afloat in this lawsuit. I absolutely cannot keep my Attorneys going and they can't keep eating thousands of dollars per week.

If 1% of my followers Gave $5 we would be funded. I can't do this alone anymore folks, and I don't want to fold

Lindsey being Lindsey. He likes to act like he's changed his stripes but that's impossible for him. He's still untrustworthy.

Matt Couch's reporting of an early morning hospital visit was one of the bombshell stories of the year and the MSM wasn't interested. Has there ever been an explanation of why they were there at the same time as SR, or do they simply deny ever being at the hospital at all?

... she had "Daily Dot" reiterate her lies ... she provided them with a picture of the conference she was at.

Then we showed her that her GeoLocate from Twitter told a different story!

Never heard from her again.

Instead of bashing President Trump, why don't you post what you love about the Democratic Party.

We've raised about $700 of the $5,751. Needed. Thanks to those who donated last night. This is just to pay for what my Attorneys did last week.

This is your daily reminder that it took Barack Obama until October of 2009 to declare Swine Flu a National Health Emergency

It began in April of '09 but Obama waited until 20,000 people in the US had been hospitalized & 1,000+ had died

Where was the media hysteria then?

Trump is driving us headfirst into a recession. Instead of saving when we had a good economy (thanks Obama), he cut taxes, started trade wars, bailed out farmers, pushed low interest rates and increased the debt by trillions. Now when an actual crisis hits, he has no tools left.

Our pathetic, slow moving Federal Reserve, headed by Jay Powell, who raised rates too fast and lowered too late, should get our Fed Rate down to the levels of our competitor nations. They now have as much as a two point advantage, with even bigger currency help. Also, stimulate!

Trump isn't attacking every day Americans... He's attacking the Mainstream Media and their dishonesty...

Your last name says it all..

Trump has been a successful president for accelerating economy; nullifying expensive treaties, doing away with anti-American trade waivers, curtailing war expenditures, avoiding any new wars; asserting due American influence globally; and still delivering despite smear campaigns.

The DNC and the RNC are private entities and have absolutely nothing to do with national Security
Yet the DNC got the whole US government to investigate their alleged hack?
The DNC paid crowdstrike to give them the results that they wanted

No conflict of interest there 🤔

I think this CoronaVirus thing is blown way out of proportion

I however think it's sickening that we're saying star athletes are more important than our children.

We've literally just done that.

Airlines hammer us everyday ... you would figure with all ll those extra fees they charge they would have had a rainy day fund set aside. ... nope... they will be the first in line for handouts from us, the taxpayers.. and when it is all done, they will be back to screwing us

Given what we know about "Crowdstrike" and their involvement in the "Russia Hoax". Why would the Republicans (RNC)hire them as their IT guys?? They are a DNC operation and now have access to all sorts of info that they can use against POTUS?

With the election of 2020 have such dire consequences for this country, why did Ronna Romney-McDaniel head of the RNC hire this deeply troubling company to do their IT work? It is something that needs to be thoroughly examined. Could she be a Trojan horse as well?

The question is not how many get infected. Most people will eventually be infected. The issue is the timing of the infections. They need to be spread out over time so that the serious cases don't all hit at the same time.

Exactly. All at once means fewer survive. If only everyone understood that the buck stops with each and every one of us. No time to be cavalier with measures

Your last name says it all

If your are mad that Joe Biden called a foul-mouthed factory worker "full of shit" but you are fine with Trump admitting to grabbing women by their "pussy" and using foul language at nationally televised rallies then you are full of shit. Just like the so-called #DemExit “Italian” restaurants in the USA are staffed mostly by non-Italians.

Hysterical media driven panic is worse than al quaida and bin laden as far as inflicting terrorism on our country - media should be labeled domestic terrorist organization - this is beyond lunacy at this point!

I think this is being blown WAY out of Proportions...

But I cannot believe that we're putting celebrities and athletes above our children.. It's sickening, and I'll keep saying it..

This is what's wrong when a nation doesn't have a moral compass.

Just had a great conversation with Prime Minister Abe of Japan. I told him that the just completed Olympic venue is magnificent. He has done an incredible job, one that will make him very proud. Good things will happen for Japan and their great Prime Minister. Lots of options!

This last month I have traveled originated from Washington State I have been to New York, New Jersey twice, Tampa Bay, DC, Houston, Vegas, Dallas and presently in San Francisco.
It seems the only people not panicking are travelers.
The others I guess, do what they're told

I travel every week as well. It's going to be harder to find flights if they keep getting cancelled because the business travelers are staying home

Mitch McConnell used nuclear option to tamper with Supreme Court, budget trick to ram through 1% tax cut and has ignored 500+ bills House Democrats passed. He's up for re-election. If everyone who read this chipped in $5 we'd flip Kentucky ➡️

Some explain this me. This is a legit question.

Corona Virus US cases: 938 US deaths: 29.

H1N1 Virus US Cases: 60.8 MILLION US Deaths: 22,469.

What makes Coronavirus special enough for this hysteria?

Friend, You are looking at end result figures and comparing them to a virus that a) we know relatively little about, and b) it is just at the beginning of its transmission/spread here in the US. You're comparing the end of a previous event to the beginning of a new event.

From a medical perspective, the virus is a nothing burger. All of us in the profession know it. The people dying would die from any URI that can cause ARDS or ARF. The flu kills 10's of thousands annually. It doesnt male sense to shut everything down based on this. Somethings up.

Again, I'll reiterate this.

I think this is being blown WAY out of Proportions.

But I cannot believe that we're putting celebrities and athletes above our children. It's sickening, and I'll keep saying it.

This is what's wrong when a nation doesn't have a moral compass.

Be prepared and be smart. Do NOT panic. Stay calm and alert. Get essentials that you need for a few weeks, and take care of your families.

It's coming.

Given what we know about "Crowdstrike" and their involvement in the "Russia Hoax" Why would the Republicans (RNC)hire them as their IT guys?? They are a DNC operation and now have access to all sorts of info that they can use against POTUS?

From a medical perspective, the virus is a nothing burger. All of us in the profession know it. The people dying would die from any URI that can cause ARDS or ARF. The flu kills 10's of thousands annually. It doesnt make sense to shut everything down based on this. Somethings up.

If you're an influencer of any kind, I have a favor to ask of you.

It's times like these that we need leaders, we need those with the ability to lead without causing fear and panic.

The mainstream media has done enough of that.

If you want to get money into the hands of people quickly & efficiently, let them have the full money that they earned. APPROVE A PAYROLL TAX CUT until the end of the year, December 31. Then you are doing something that is really meaningful. Only that will make a big difference!

The Dow is going to end up at around 12000 before this is all set and done. Does anyone believe Joe Biden can bring that back up with the policy's he will put in place? Bernie Sanders? Not a chance, you'd all better pray Trump remains President.

As I always feared, Trump is trying to pivot fears about the coronavirus into fears against foreigners and minorities. Like a cornered animal, he is covering up his inept response and initial downplaying of the coronavirus into blatant xenophobia to rile up his nationalist base.

But I want to remind everyone that we are all in this together. The coronavirus doesn't care if you're black, white, Asian, Latino, Native American, Democrat, Republican, or whatever you may be. It doesn't care if you came from China, Italy, or France. We must all stick together.

If you have elderly relatives and family right now, call and check on them. See if they need anything. You can order groceries to be delivered to them without contact.

Just some advice. Also all nursing homes are on lock down. I'm going to encourage my kids to write to them.

fact check: these cruise operators had already suspended operations, on their own, without waiting for your too-little-too-late half measures. but taking credit for other peoples' work is kind of your thing, so carry on sir! (source: usatoday.com/story/travel/c…)

> Royal Caribbean is suspending its U.S. operations at midnight Saturday, the company said Friday. Its move followed Princess Cruises, Viking and Disney on Thursday.

Be prepared and stay vigilant and keep your situational awareness

You can't control people unless you want socialism..

There are many like me who don't rely on MSM who have seen this coming for a month. It's here..

Shortages are happening, it's going to get worse. Be prepared and stay calm. Panic and fear is the problem we're facing.

> If no one panicked and everyone just did their normal weekly grocery shopping, everyone would have enough of all the same items that they consume everyday for the rest of their lives. Stockpiling just diminishes supply and drive up the price.

Whether the virus requires stockpiling for a month or two THE SUPPLY CHAIN MAY TAKE 18-24 months to reset.

You can't control people unless you want socialism..

There are many like me who don't rely on MSM who have seen this coming for a month. It's here..

Shortages are happening, it's going to get worse. Be prepared and stay calm. Panic and fear is the problem we're facing.

Only the clueless dont understand supply chain situations.

Whether the virus requires stockpiling for a month or two - THE SUPPLY CHAIN MAY TAKE 18-24 months to reset.

Its not just a health problem

The government cannot demand companies pay a mandatory two week sick leave. Many small businesses simply cannot afford that. If they want to make it mandatory, then the government should pay for it.

Good news on the coronavirus you won't find anywhere else:

-China has closed down its last coronavirus hospital. Not enough new cases to support them.
-Italy is hit hard, experts say, because they have the oldest population in Europe (average age of those that have died is 81).

Believe me, John Kasich is mild mannered, but he never usually held back in complaining about President Trump for different things.

I applaud him giving credit where credit is due

Good news on the coronavirus you won't find anywhere else:

China has closed down its last coronavirus hospital. Not enough new cases to support them.

Italy is hit hard, experts say, because they have the oldest population in Europe (average age of those that have died is 81).

The Sick Leave B[redacted] was blocked. And rightfully so

The government cannot demand companies pay a mandatory two week sick leave. Many small businesses simply cannot afford that. If they want to make it mandatory, then the government should pay for it.

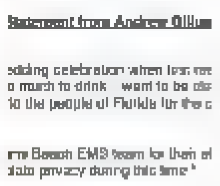
LMAO. Bags of a crystal meth, nudity, and puking... to help a friend after a wedding while you were too inebriated to talk, @AndrewGillum ?
You CANNOT make this stuff up.

Literally no person believes it but left wing journalists are going to pretend they do to try to help you.



Allan Smith @akarlsmith

Gillum: "I was in Miami last night for a wedding celebration when first responders were called to assist one of my friends. While I had too much to drink, I want to be clear that I have never used methamphetamine

Why is it breaking news when the President of the United States wears a USA hat to speak to American citizens?

It's never breaking news when Dems have no American flags at their debate - is it because they are speaking to illegals?

This video turned my stomach. How can people be so ignorant to what's going on? Are they so programmed to believe they'll be accused of or thought of not being inclusive enough? Not being accepting? I can't understand any parent feeling good about sexualization of their kids.

Ngl, I was afraid when I initially read this... but it makes sense. Try restocking shelves in the middle of a horde of panicky people! Also, time to clean those high-traffic areas. Good call by #Walmart and one that should definitely be emulated by other retailers

In our times of greatest need, Americans have always turned to prayer to help guide us through trials and periods of uncertainty. As we continue to face the unique challenges posed by the coronavirus pandemic, millions of Americans are unable to gather in their churches, temples, synagogues, mosques, and other houses of worship. But in this time we must not cease asking God for added wisdom, comfort, and strength, and we must especially pray for those who have suffered harm or who have lost loved ones. I ask you to join me in a day of prayer for all people who have been affected by the coronavirus pandemic and to pray for God's healing hand to be placed on the people of our Nation.

As your President, I ask you to pray for the health and well-being of your fellow Americans and to remember that no problem is too big for God to handle. We should all take to heart the holy words found in 1 Peter 5:7: "Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you." Let us pray that all those affected by the virus

In our times of greatest need, Americans have always turned to prayer to help guide us through trials and periods of uncertainty. As we continue to face the unique challenges posed by the coronavirus pandemic, millions of Americans are unable to gather in their churches, temples, synagogues, mosques, and other houses of worship. But in this time we must not cease asking God for added wisdom, comfort, and strength, and we must especially pray for those who have suffered harm or who have lost loved ones. I ask you to join me in a day of prayer for all people who have been affected by the coronavirus pandemic and to pray for God's healing hand to be placed on the people of our Nation.

As your President, I ask you to pray for the health and well-being of your fellow Americans and to remember that no problem is too big for God to handle. We should all take to heart the holy words found in 1 Peter 5:7: "Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you." Let us pray that all those affected by the virus

I was informed that a former staffer who left our office 10 days ago has tested positive for COVID-19.

Although doctors believe the staffer contracted the virus after leaving my office, I'm taking additional distancing precautions, including postponing meetings and teleworking:

"We have received notice that a former staff member has tested positive for COVID-19. As a result we consulted with the House Attending physician and will be acting on their recommendations. Medical professionals believe that my former staff member likely contracted the virus after leaving the office, but we will still be taking additional precautions over the next few days. The former staffer is feeling better and no current staff have reported any flu-like symptoms at this time.

"Even prior to receiving this notification, we had postponed my district events and meetings, and requested that my staff telecommute from home for the foreseeable future out of an abundance of caution.

"Throughout this health crisis, I feel that the job of elected officials is to push out the best information possible, to heed the advice of public health professionals and scientists, and be cautious.

"I'm also distinctly aware that as a Member of Congress, I have access to affordable and quality healthcare, and that if I were sick and needed to take time off work, I would not lose a paycheck. Many Americans don't have the same assurances, and fear the economic pains of Coronavirus, not just the potential deleterious health effects. It's incumbent on Congress to continue to act in their interests.

"I will provide additional updates, as warranted, in the coming days."

Oh come on, that'd be dumb. Seniors don't have jobs, they don't go to school, they stay home much of the time, they always have stacks of toilet paper, and don't need school lunches. The economy wouldn't even know. What kind of hysteria would this create? BORING.

Can someone explain this to me slowly?

What the hell is non essential state employees?

If they are so non essential, why do they even have jobs?

What is a non essential state employee?

Growing up in the DC area and living here most of our lives, this has been a key question. Why do "We the People" pay these "non-essential" federal employees? They are excused every snowstorm, every government shutdown ... with pay. Why are they employed at all?

From my Dad:

"Well we need a better explanation than we are getting. There's too many older people like me that have been free too long to just start taking government orders like this & telling us when & where we can come & go. This is America not Russia or Iran etc"

Trump literally told governors that they had to "get ventilators themselves." That is absolutely unconscionable. The federal government should be doing everything it can to provide ventilators to states in need. We are all in this together.

170 · 482 · 2.9

Eugene Gu, MD @eugenegu · 56

In fact, it's outrageous that Trump and the federal government are prioritizing helping big corporations and bailing out huge companies rather than focusing all resources on the actual American people. We are basically left to fend for ourselves or give our health data to Google.

you told the nation's governors to fend for themselves if they wanted medical equipment. once again, you abdicated responsibility. who is this "very good" for? Cuomo displayed more leadership in one press conference this morning than you have in your entire life. RESIGN NOW

Two weeks ago, Italians were merrily sipping wine and coffee at bars and restaurants. Today, elderly Italians are denied care at hospitals and instead administered last rites because their health-care system is collapsing.

I understand these extraordinary measures will impose many hardships, but if we take them now, we can shorten the risk to Americans' health and the economic hardships.

I'm working on legislation to get cash stipends to affected workers and their families so they can buy food and pay the bills during this crisis, plus help to small and mid-sized businesses weather the storm. Now is the time to avoid Italy's fate. Here are some needful steps:

1) Stop all but essential activity. Call it what you want—a shutdown, quarantine, curfew, whatever. But only absolutely essential work should continue: groceries, pharmacies, supply transport, health care, electricity, water, sanitation, etc. Everyone else should stay home.

I'm working on legislation to get cash stipends to affected workers and their families so they can buy food and pay the bills during this crisis, plus help to small and mid-sized businesses weather the storm. Now is the time to avoid Italy's fate. Here are some needful steps.

1) Stop all but essential activity. Call it what you want—a shutdown, quarantine, curfew, whatever. But only absolutely essential work should continue: groceries, pharmacies, supply transport, health care, electricity, water, sanitation, etc. Everyone else should stay home.

2) Shut down all but essential government agencies & services. At federal, state, and local levels, officials working to arrest the virus's spread and mitigate its economic harm (and other essential services like food aid and VA care) must continue working. No one else should.

3 36 83

Tom Cotton @SenTomCotton 16m

3) The military must prepare for defense support of civil authorities, especially at hospitals, nursing homes, etc., & do whatever is needed to increase our capacity to treat patients. Our military plans for exactly this kind of contingency. Our doctors and nurses may need them.

Read the cooking instructions, most of that stuff requires 30-45 minutes off simmer time. That's fine if you have electricity (or gas), but in a larger scale emergency, preparing that stuff will be difficult

Read the cooking instructions, most of that stuff requires 30-45 minutes off simmer time. That's fine if you have electricity (or gas), but in a larger scale emergency, preparing that stuff will be difficult

Trump is a woefully ineffective leader during this health crisis. He could direct Medicare and Medicaid to institute a nationwide telemedicine parity law so that all states allow telemedicine to be used to triage patients with coronavirus symptoms before they overwhelm hospitals.

If you live in California, we're offering free telemedicine evaluations for the coronavirus with Stanford trained doctors so that you don't have to risk getting yourself or others sick in the emergency room or urgent care center. We don't charge a dime.

Cuomo wants "all states to be treated the same." But all states aren't the same. Some are being hit hard by the Chinese Virus, some are being hit practically not at all. New York is a very big "hotspot", West Virginia has, thus far, zero cases. Andrew, keep politics out of it....
